

GPN Preceptorship

FAQ's

1. How much will the programme cost to access?
 - A contribution of £250 will be required.
2. How long will the programme take to complete?
 - The programme will take 9 months to complete
3. How much time per week/month will be necessary to complete the programme?
 - It is expected that at least 1 day per month will be needed, although the Vaccination & Immunisation and Cervical Screening training both take 2 days.
4. Will supervision be necessary?
 - Yes, each nurse will need a 'mentor' within the practice/PCN
5. Does the nurse have to attend every session?
 - Yes, the nurse will be expected to attend every session in order to obtain the final accreditation
6. If the nurse leaves the practice, will the practice receive a refund of the contribution amount?
 - There will not be any refund of the contribution
7. What are the student requirements for this programme?
 - Be registered with the NMC
 - Be employed by a Primary Care Practice
 - Have completed an internal induction process within the Practice
 - Be receiving mentorship support from an experienced nurse
 - Have access to an e-learning programme which supports management of long-term conditions in Primary Care
 - Be committed to monthly study days

8. What are the practice requirements for this programme?
 - Be willing to support the student by providing access to learning opportunities and time to learn
 - Agree to a contribution of £250

9. Will this course be accredited?
 - We are working in collaboration with the University of Buckingham (North) for accreditation of this bespoke course at Level Six

10. How long in post do I need to be in order to apply?
 - You must be within your first 12 months of working as a Practice Nurse.