

Trainee Nursing Associate (TNA) Intake September 2023

NHSE NW and C&M TH are supportive of the NA Foundation Degree Apprenticeship with LJMU, a regional provider

These places are open to any new or existing staff within your Primary Care Network or General Practice, who must have been living and working in the UK for 3 years

TNAs and Employers within Primary Care will be fully supported with

Dedicated TNA PEF and academic team to support and guide the Practice Team

Adult TNA maybe eligible for £4000 pa to support learning

University Provider fees of £15000 paid by the Transfer Levy

Each PCN will be able to claim 100% of the TNA salary on the ARRS Band 3

TNA spending 50% working with LD and or, autistic patients maybe eligible for £7900 pa

1 day release a week and all placements provided by the univeristy

Academic criteria for the Nursing Associate Foundation Degree Apprenticeship are Level 2 Math and English and a Level 3 or above qualification

Deadline 24st July 2023 for Sept 2023 Intake

For an informal chat contact Deborah Holden PC TNA PEF C&M TH by email Deborah.holden7@nhs.net or mobile 07380 531491.

Look at LJMU apprenticeship programme by hovering and clicking their logo